Meanwhile, the awardee- Filipino migrant workers and organizations felt ecstatic for the recognition they received, and declared their commitment to support all the activities of the Philippine Embassy.

Later in the afternoon, a "Kapihan at Kamustahan" session commenced with the presentations on activities, programs and services of the Philippine Embassy and partner agencies. The Kapihan at Kamustahan is a regular activity of the Philippine Embassy with the aim of providing an avenue for Filipino migrant workers in Kuwait to sit down and talk face to face with the Philippine Embassy and its partner agencies for updates on programs and services, and also to thresh out OFW-related issues and concerns.

Overall, the twin event was a success as manifested by the participation of hundreds of OFWs and their heartwarming responses and reactions thereafter.
